Public Works Director Bock reported to the Council on the school electric project. No new transformer or meter was necessary. Only demo work by the Raccoon Valley Electric Coop and City. A school stop sign is necessary on Colorado Street entrance. The Council consensus was a flip stop sign maintained by the school. Other items were watering the new trees and shrubs, yellow paint on curbs, and asphalt project soon. No Council action.

City Clerk Danner reported to Council on the KIB membership (no interest), ten grant applications, FFA tickets (keep no solicitation policy), Coop flag pole (permit but waive fee), resident complaint on chickens and roosters (send letter), uncut lawn nuisance consensus to 8 inches and 7 day notice (ordinance prepared for next meeting). Motion by Schroer, seconded by Fay, to purchase the Savin C9125 $4998 with maintenance agreement for the city office. Roll call: all ayes. Motion carried.

In new business, the Mayor asked about penalty for no building permit. No Council action.

In citizen forum, Council reviewed the documents presented on Diane Betker's behalf. The decision was made by Council at the last meeting. Council directed the clerk to send a second letter explaining the Council decision from the last meeting. Council members will not review again at the next meeting. Council members explained the rebate decision to Bill Arnold. No Council meeting.

Motion by Linde, seconded by Ball, to adjourn at 6:20p.m. On vote: all ayes. Motion carried.
