Schedule: The program begins late May and ends in early July. Games will be held in Glidden and surrounding communities. Coaches may schedule scrimmages with other area towns. Practices are determined by each teams' coach. Games are scheduled in the evenings. Your coach will distribute a practice/game calendar. Listen to KCIM for game cancellations due to weather. WEATHER ANNOUNCEMENTS PHONE NUMBER 792-3472.

Transportation: Parents are responsible for transporting their children to ALL away games, home games and practices.

Required equipment: supplied by the parent is a baseball/softball glove. Rubber cleats are optional, but metal cleats are prohibited. Girls are required as pitchers to wear softball face guards. We highly recommend all girls fielding to wear softball face guards. Optional pants may be purchased at area businesses.

Fee: $35.00/participant early registration, $45.00/participant

The Character Counts principles will be reviewed.

Spectators: can add considerably to the enjoyment of the event by applause and positive vocal support. Negative comments have no place, however. Criticism of the efforts of players, coaches, or referees is counter to the philosophy of the program and will not be tolerated.

Youth sports should focus on fun and player development, not on winning.
